Student of the Year Awards 2024

Every year, EFFoST organizes the Student of the Year Award competition to support and encourage the next generation of food scientists. The competition is organized in collaboration with our partner Cargill.

To apply

Step 1. Submit your abstract by using the online abstract submission system for EFFoST2024 at www.effostconference.com

Step 2. Submit the online application form with the relevant documents included in www.studentoftheyear.eu

Complete step 1 and 2 before 14 May 2024.

Regulations

The EFFoST Student of the Year Awards are open to registered students of MSc or PhD programmes at European universities in the academic year 2023 – 2024 or MSc students who completed their degree in the period July 2023 – June 2024. Students must have been enrolled in a degree program in food science and technology or similar. Part-time students can also apply.

Popular vote

The top 10 applicants will be invited to join the Popular Vote competition for the best student poster presentation. Upon nomination, the applicants will be asked to upload a three minute flash presentation video. This video will be shown as part of the plenary session and will be considered as part of the evaluation. The winner will be chosen by the conference delegates of EFFoST2024.

About EFFoST

The European Federation of Food Science and Technology (EFFoST) creates opportunities for food professionals to network, share knowledge and build collaborations with the aim to advance food science and technology in order to produce sustainable and healthy food for all in a changing world.

About Cargill

Cargill's 155,000 employees across 70 countries work relentlessly to achieve their purpose of nourishing the world in a safe, responsible and sustainable way. Every day, Cargill connects farmers with markets, customers with ingredients, and people and animals with the food they need to thrive.
